

Badminton

An exciting racket sport played with a shuttlecock

What is Badminton?

Badminton is a fast-paced racket sport played by millions worldwide. Players hit a shuttlecock over a net using lightweight rackets, aiming to land it in their opponent's court.

The game can be played as singles (one player each side) or doubles (two players each side). It's an Olympic sport that combines speed, agility, and precision.

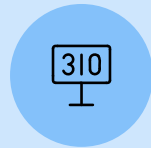

Basic Rules

Serve

Serve diagonally from the right service court when score is even, left when odd

Scoring

Games are played to 21 points. You must win by 2 points, up to a maximum of 30

Let

If the shuttlecock hits the net during serve and lands in the correct service court, it's a let

Equipment You Need

Racket

Lightweight racket made of carbon fibre or aluminium. Maximum length 680mm

Shuttlecock

Has 16 feathers attached to a cork base.
Can reach speeds over 400 km/h!

Net

1.55m high at the edges, 1.524m at the centre. Divides the court into two equal halves

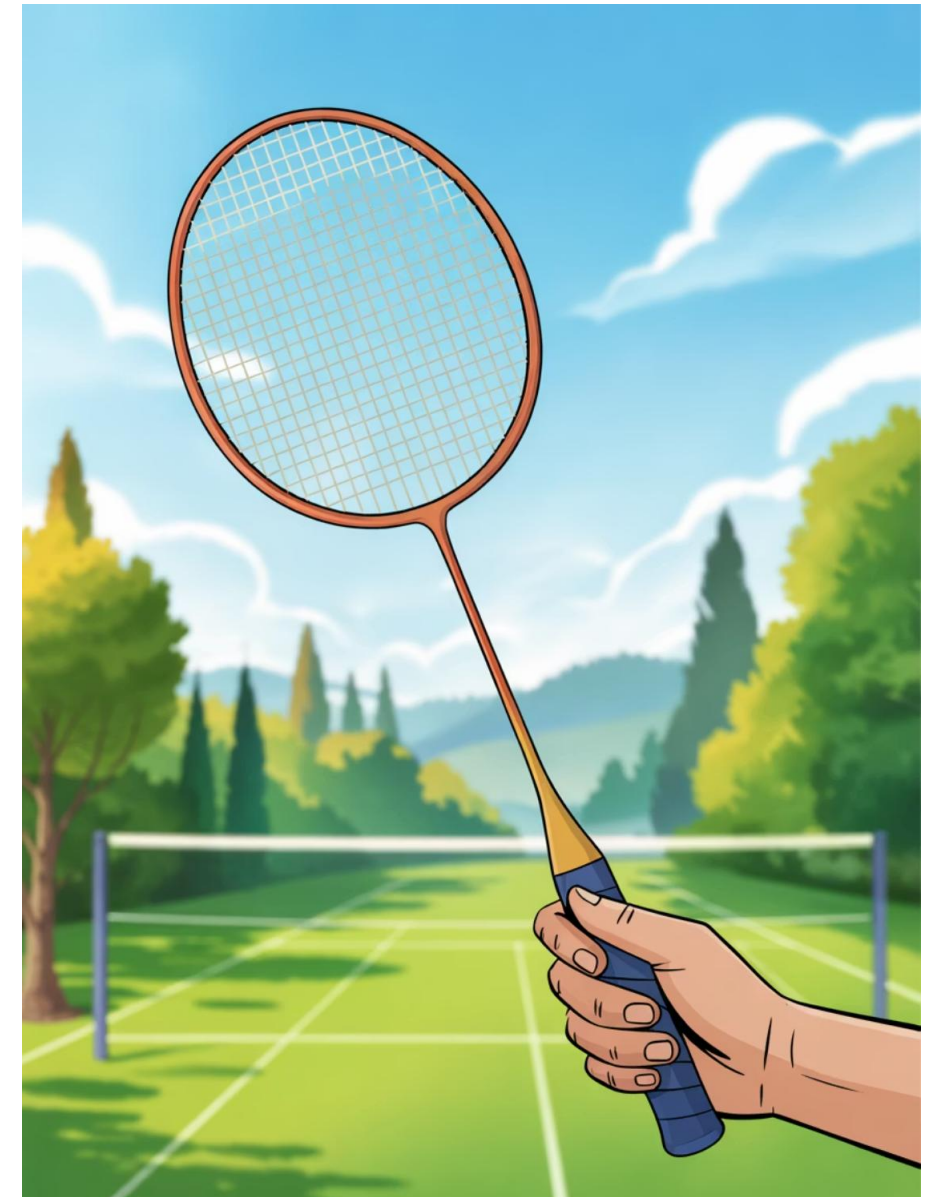

Grip

How to Hold Your Racket

The grip is your foundation for all shots. Hold the racket as if shaking hands with it, with your thumb resting on the back grip.

Key points:

- Hold loosely for flexibility
- Thumb and index form a V shape
- Don't grip too tightly

Footwork

01

Ready Position

Stand in the centre with feet shoulder-width apart, knees slightly bent

03

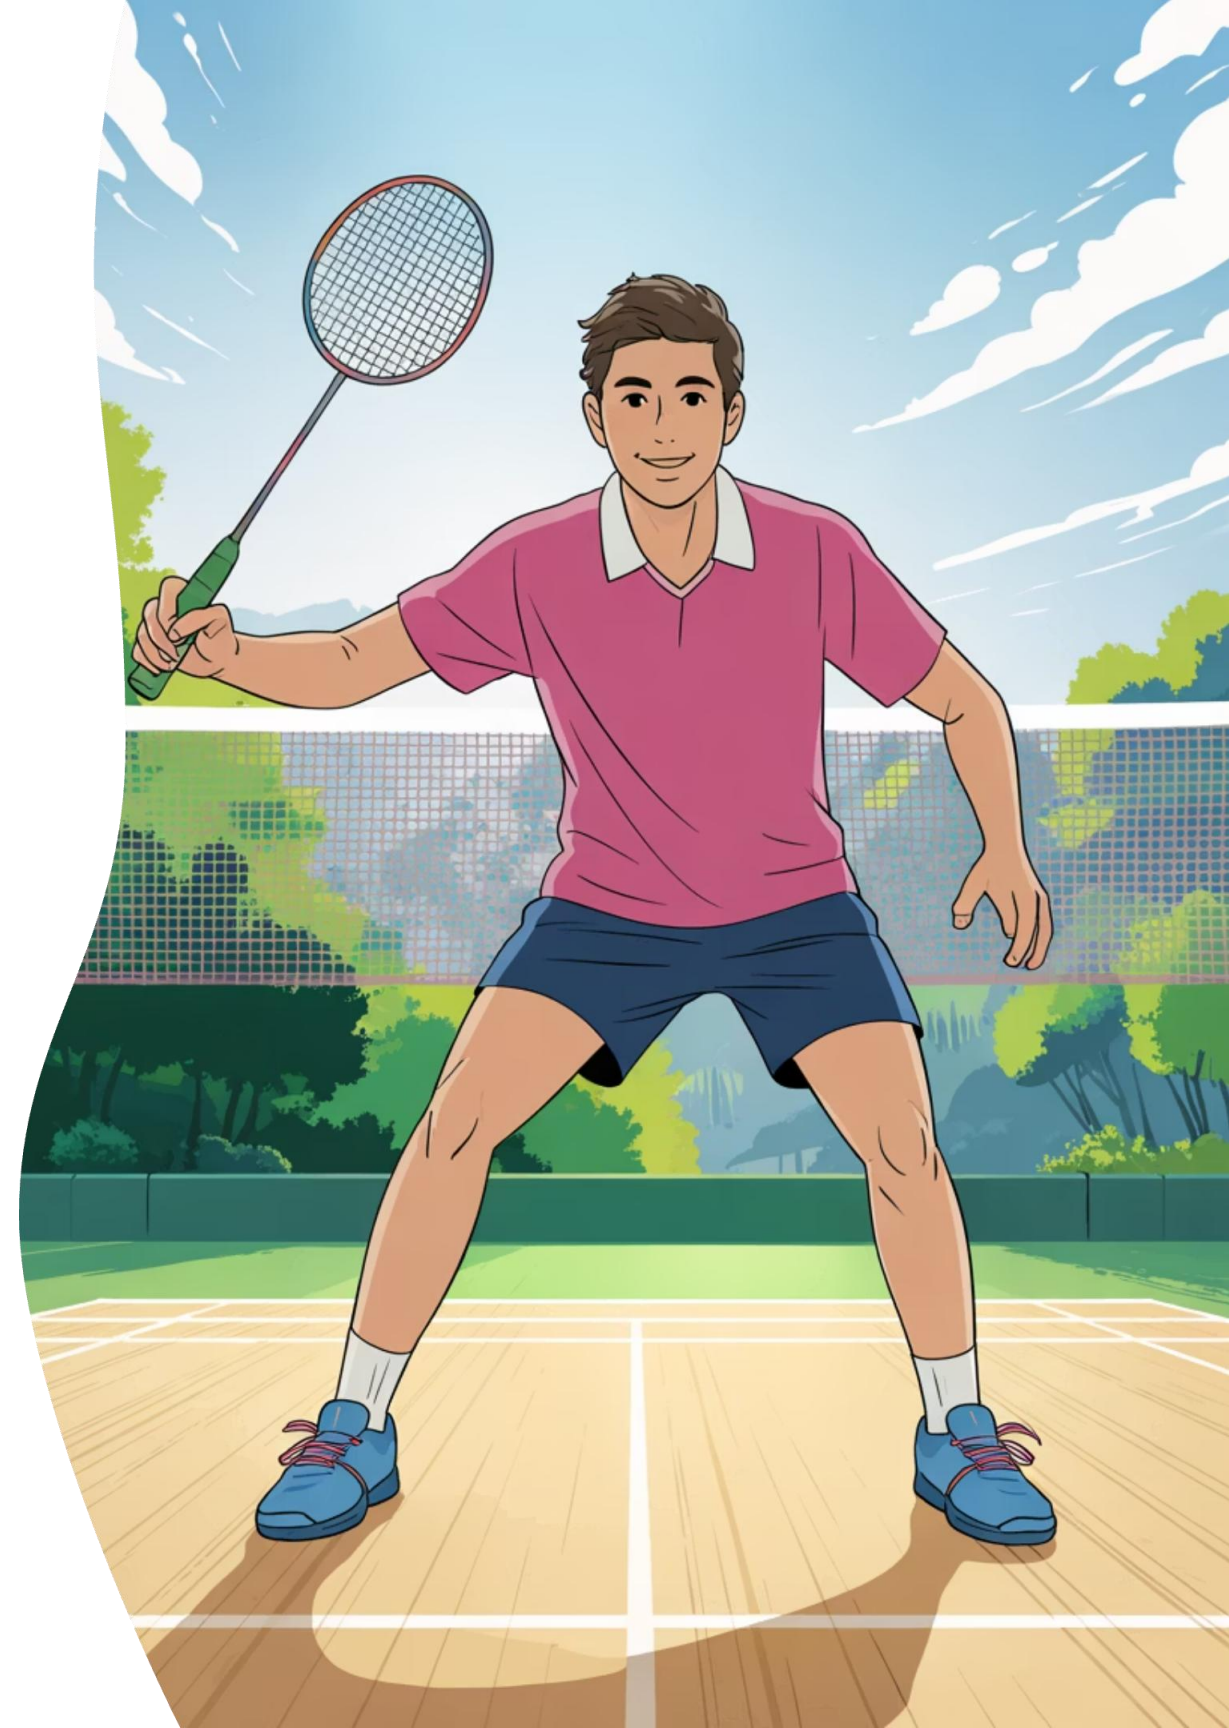

Return to Centre

After each shot, return to the centre position

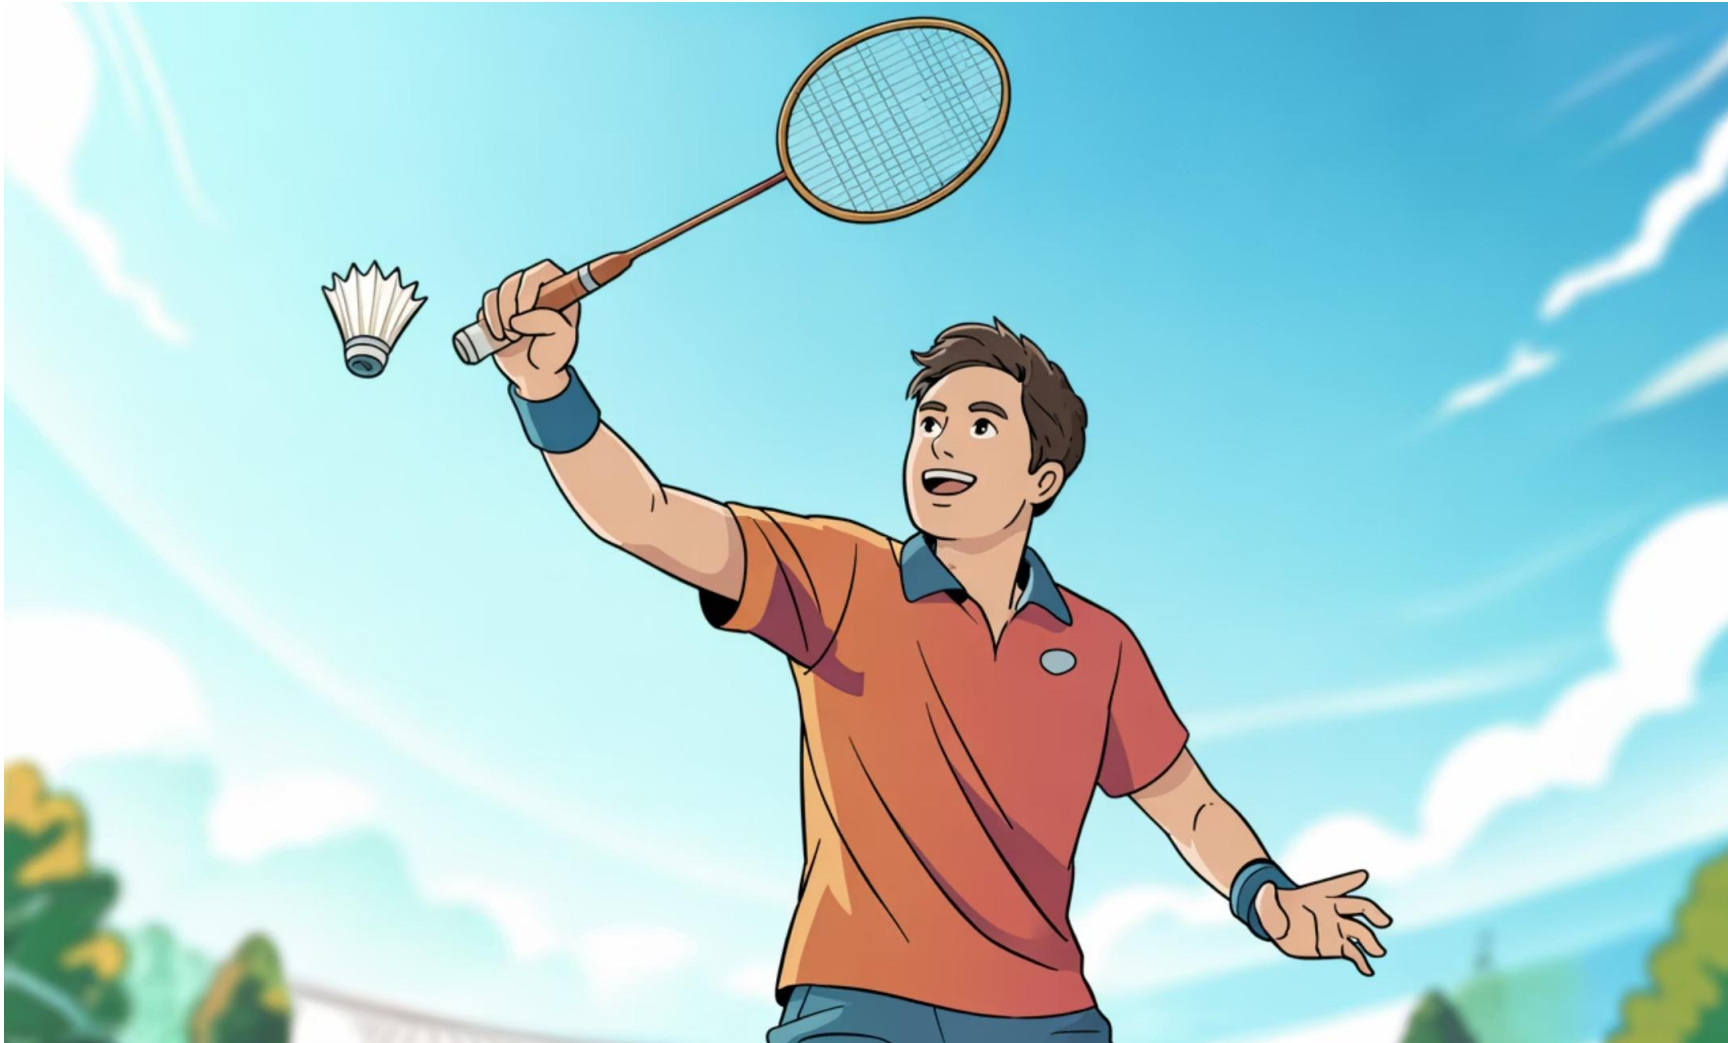

02

Move Quickly

Use small steps to move efficiently around the court

Forehand Clear

The Basic Overhead Shot

The forehand clear is a defensive shot that sends the shuttlecock high and deep into your opponent's court.

1. Turn your body sideways
2. Extend your arm fully overhead
3. Hit the shuttlecock at the highest point
4. Follow through across your body

Benefits of Playing
